- Free advice on overall strategy for a better chance of registration of your mark and better trademark protection
- Free advice on the proper classification and specification of the goods or services of the trademark application.

To opt for our abovesaid free services, please provide us with the following information:-

- (1) A specimen of the mark;
- (2) Full name of the applicant;
- (3) Full address of the applicant; and
- (4) A list of goods and/or services to be covered in the application.

2. Trade mark filing

We offer service for filing a trademark application at a competitive price as quoted separately. The information and documents required for filing the application are as follows:-

1. A specimen of the mark;
2. Full name of the applicant;
3. Full address of the applicant;
4. Classification and specification of goods and/or services;
5. Details of home applications/ registrations, if any;
6. Date of first use of the mark in the U.S.A, if any; and
7. A copy of the corporate applicant's current business registration certificate or a copy of the identification page of the individual applicant's passport;

3. After the application is filed

The U.S. Trademark Office normally take 9 to 12 months to process a trademark application until the registration is granted. A longer time is required if U.S. Trademark Office has raised objection or someone has opposed the application.

See the flowchart for U.S. Trademark Application.

4. After the registration is granted

The trademark registration is effective for 10 years from the date of registration (during the 5th-6th year of which a statement of use needs to be filed to maintain the registration), and can be renewed every 10 years, upon application and payment of renewal fee.

We offer a Worldwide Trademark Watching Services at a competitive price. It could effectively prevent someone else (including your existing or ex business partners, staff etc.) from registering your mark or a very similar mark without your authorization in another country.
